

George Soros and the Hired Thugs

George Soros admitted that he is spending over 2 Billion Dollars to organize social groups in the USA.

Many officials believe that these funds were used to organize and pay for the gangs of thugs' that would kick and beat supporters at the early Trump rallies, all across the country.

This was Soros' way of helping Hillary get elected President. All of this was arranged by the Democrat's Deep State and paid for by the funds from George Soros.

Here is how it works. Soros would very legally give money to one of his officially approved non-profit organizations. Their non-profit charter allowed them to hire social consultants. These hired individuals work as consultants and were paid enough money to hire a staff of temporary consultants.

Everything perfectly legal according to non-profit rules and U.S. tax regulations. In fact, the costs can even be tax deductible.

The temporary consultants would be paid on a daily basis, which makes them short-term temporary workers. As such, they are paid out of petty cash, with no names and no tax obligation. Perfectly legal.

Making sure that the payments could never be traced back to Soros and the DNC is a master piece of deception. Everything in cash, with used 20-dollar bills. And, no written records.

In Hillary's meetings with Soros, they developed the overall plan for the "Consulting" Project. This was the hiring of Thugs to terrify, kick, punch, and injure the Trump supporters. With everyone taking their cut as it passed from hand to hand, the money was flowing like water.

The money flowed almost like the $2 Billion cost for design of the Obamacare website.

During Donald Trump's early campaign rallies, gangs of these young men would run after Trump supporters and punch them in the face and kick them on the ground - repeatedly, while they laughed and danced around the victims.

This was repeated, in the same way, at Trump rallies all over the country. It was obvious that the Gangs of Thugs were organized, and perhaps trained, by someone or some organization. And, of course it was.

The police never showed up and always kept away while the gangs were running after the Trump supporters and punching and kicking them. Even while they were injured and laying on the ground, the police did not show up. The DNC did a thoroughly good job of organizing these Projects.

These gangs always operated the same way. The gangs would be ready and waiting for the Trump supporters. In all the cities, the gangs repeated the same tactics. They had no mercy. They were out to severely and permanently injure the Trump supporters. They meant what they were doing.

In the states with "Open Carry" the gangs made sure that their victims were not carrying guns. They beat the hell out of the Trump supporters – and laughed and danced as they went from victim to victim.

Many bystanders took videos of the beatings – and put their videos on YouTube. But, thanks to the long reach of the Democrat's Deep State and their connections, their buddies at YouTube deleted their videos. The Deep State is everywhere.
